

VISION DOCUMENT (DRAFT)

4TH TURKISH-LATIN AMERICAN AND CARIBBEAN CONGRESS

“Future of the Latin American Economy and Turkey”

(28-30 September 2022, CVK Park Bosphorus Hotel, Istanbul)

It is required for Turkey recently aiming at a multi-faceted foreign policy objective to develop its relations with the Latin America and the Caribbean, whose populations are 605 million, and GDPs are over 6 trillion dollars, and foreign trade volumes are 1.72 trillion dollars.

In this regard, it is required to share the technology, and increase the academic exchange and cultural interaction, and transform the natural resources into economic values, and develop the investments, and jointly manage the risks coming along with the globalization processes, and concentrate on the fields, such as the cooperation in the important foreign policy problems and the strategical cooperation.

The 4th Turkish - Latin American and Caribbean Congress, which will be held with the main theme of the “Future of the Latin American Economy and Turkey” aims at contributing to the relations between Turkey and the regional countries.

Main Theme

Future of the Latin American Economy and Turkey

Sub-Themes

New NAFTA Economy Ecosystem

Caribbean Economies

Latin American Economies

Economies of the Dominant Countries (Brasil, Mexico, Argentina etc.)

Regional Perspectives

Event Page

Event details and the vision document can be reached via the link below:

https://tasam.org/en/Etkinlik/16237/4th_turkish_-_latin_american_and_caribbean_congress